

DCRA FACT CHECK: ELECTRICAL INSPECTIONS

To Electrical Contractors and Wholesalers:

The D.C. Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs has and will continue to inspect and conduct electrical inspections across the District of Columbia. It was brought to our attention that there might be some confusion regarding this service. We want to assure all contractors that city inspectors have and will continue to provide this service.

If you need an electrical inspection, please call 202-442-9557. You will immediately be given an inspection date at the time of your call.

For electrical and all other commercial inspections call:
